

Call for participation in a filmmaking project

Have you moved to French-speaking Switzerland temporarily or permanently from abroad? Are you between 18 and 35 years old? Have you ever dreamed of taking part in a filmmaking project? Whether you're a complete novice or have some experience with film or photography, this is your chance!

We are excited to invite you to join a free filmmaking workshop at the University of Neuchâtel offered as part of the international research project LYMAS ("Life Strategies of Young Migrants in Ageing Societies"), led by Prof. Janine Dahinden and Dr. Emmanuel Charmillot.

The workshop will be led in English by the experienced filmmaker and teacher Sezen Kayhan (<https://sezenkayhan.com/>), but you are welcome to create your film project in any language of your choice.

During the workshop, you will work from scratch on your project and will learn about:

- storytelling in films
- camera, sound, and lighting techniques
- film project development
- video editing
- and much more!

Most importantly, your film will be part of the international research project!
