

Communication & Brand Intern (m/f/d)

📍 Switzerland | Engineering Consulting firm

🕒 Internship – 3 to 6 months (flexible workload)

About the Internship

To support the growth of our engineering consulting company in Switzerland, we are looking for a Communication & Brand Intern to contribute to our internal and external communication activities. This internship offers a unique opportunity to work closely with leadership and consultants, gain exposure to the consulting and engineering ecosystem, and actively contribute to building a strong, authentic, and impactful brand.

Your Responsibilities

- 🔹 Support external communication: website updates, LinkedIn content, newsletters
- 🔹 Contribute to employer branding and recruitment communication
- 🔹 Assist in creating content (posts, articles, visuals, presentations)
- 🔹 Support business development materials (presentations, proposals, success stories)
- 🔹 Help coordinate communication around events, communities, and initiatives
- 🔹 Ensure consistency of tone of voice and brand identity across channels
- 🔹 Monitor communication performance and suggest improvements

Your Profile

- 🔹 Currently enrolled in or recently graduated from a Bachelor's or Master's program in Communication, Marketing, Business, Media, or a related field
- 🔹 Strong interest in consulting, engineering, innovation, or technology
- 🔹 Excellent written communication skills
- 🔹 Structured, proactive, and curious mindset
- 🔹 Comfortable working in a fast-paced, entrepreneurial environment
- 🔹 Fluent in English; French and/or German is a strong asset
- 🔹 Knowledge of social media, content tools, or design software is a plus

What We Offer

We believe great work happens when people feel trusted, inspired, and empowered!

- 🔹 Hands-on experience in a growing engineering consulting firm
- 🔹 Direct exposure to leadership and strategic topics
- 🔹 A steep learning curve and real ownership from day one
- 🔹 A collaborative, human-centric, and international environment
- 🔹 Flexible working arrangements
- 🔹 Hybrid position
- 🔹 Paid internship
- 🔹 Possibility to evolve into a longer-term role or extended collaboration

It's Your Move – Let's Build Tomorrow Together!

We're hiring now! If you're passionate about communication, ready to make an impact, and eager to grow your career within an international environment, ELLEON is your next step.

🌟 At ELLEON, we celebrate diversity, curiosity, and courage. We encourage candidates from all backgrounds to apply.
