

Internship in Marketing

Enuu Ltd – fast-growing start-up in micro-mobility

Who is Enuu?

At Enuu Ltd, we are driving the future of mobility. Our mission is to make cities more liveable by reducing traffic and carbon emissions with an affordable, convenient, and eco-friendly means of transportation. We have launched the first micro-mobility sharing service through the use of light electric vehicles (LEVs), which represent the perfect mix between e-bikes and conventional cars. Founded in early 2017 in Biel, we have been operating for over two years now, in the cities of Biel and Zürich. To add to this, we have also begun our expansion into other cities across Switzerland and Europe.

Does the idea of promoting the revolution of transport and mobility as we know it interest you?
