

Solaris Commodities SA trading company specialised in grain trading is recruiting an

Intern at 100% temporary position of 6 months

Internship in Trading department

Opportunity to join dynamic/experienced trading team in a fast-growing start-up company, as a starting point for a career in commodity trading. A successful candidate would have the potential to join in the future as a Junior Trade team member.

Under supervision of the trading desk, the intern will be providing Trading and Marketing support.

Internship will focus on

Tasks

Input data and update internal systems.
Register contracts.
Update Spreadsheets.
Tender recaps.
Assist with client KYC.

Language

Fluency in English. Russian would be an added value.

Skills

Skilled in decision making and negotiation
Advanced Excel Skills
Curious – We'll teach you everything you need to know, but we love working with people who ask questions and are eager to get involved
Analytical – We're looking for quantitative thinkers and master problem-solvers
Communication – We need people who can speak confidently and concisely especially when the stakes are high

Competencies

Ability to work in a team
Openness and Trust
Strong interpersonal skills
Comfortable working with details
Independent and flexible
Ability to make decisions and influence others
Ability to work under stress

Profile/Education:

Bachelor's degree in business or related field.

Experience in a trading company would be an asset and accounting background welcome

Deadline for application: August 22th 2021

Starting date: as soon as possible

Place of work: Rue de Rive 11, 1204 Genève

Online application ONLY accepted to email: t.hoyos@solaris-ch.com