

Swiss Youth with the UN / World Bank: Apply now!

28 positions in 26 countries: discover the vacancies

Hi there,

If you are a Swiss graduate, younger than 29, and interested in contributing to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), this opportunity could be for you!

Have you always wanted to gain insight into the development bank / UN work in a duty station, gain valuable work experience in international cooperation, and dive into a different culture?

Apply now for a one-year UN Youth Volunteers Assignment!

We have just advertised 28 positions in 26 countries, such as:

- Climate Change Outreach and Coordination Associate – RCO, Jordan
- Human Development Analyst –World Bank, Timor Leste
- Human Rights Associate – OHCHR, Colombia
- Operations Analyst – World Bank, North Macedonia
- Peace, Security, Conflict Prevention, Humanitarian Analyst – UN Women, DRC

👉 Click here to discover all opportunities worldwide.

Apply by 31 August

These positions are a unique opportunity for you to kick-start your career in international cooperation. We are looking forward to your application!

Natacha Wicht & Saskia Zaugg

Recruiters for the programme

cinfo

cinfo

Center for Information, Counseling and Training for Professions relating to International Cooperation

Rue Centrale 115

CH-2503 Bienne

Switzerland

+41 32 365 80 02

+41 32 366 54 14

www.cinfo.ch
