

CUPSYNET MEETING 21 & 22 October 2016

Venue: University of Cyprus,
Social Functions Center, Room 105

Friday 21st of October

09:00-11:00

Panel Discussion on the Teaching of History and Collective Memory: A socio-cultural approach

Dr. Irini Kadianaki, Psychology Department, University of Cyprus
Using representations of history to construct citizenship boundaries

Dr. Brady Wagoner, *Department of Communication & Psychology,
Aalborg University*
Culture in constructive remembering

Dr. Ignacio Brescó, *Department of Communication and Psychology,
Aalborg University*
Teaching the collective past. But, whose past are we talking about?

Dr. Charis Psaltis, Psychology Department, University of Cyprus
How do we teach the past of intergroup conflict? The contribution of Genetic Social Psychology

11.00-11.30

Coffee Break

PhD Students' presentations Part A'

11.30-13:30

1. Tijana Jokic, PhD Student, University of Belgrade

Teacher transition in context of introduction of inclusive education policy

2. Pavlina Charalambidou, PhD student, University of Cyprus
Investigating the beliefs of children attending a multicultural primary school in Athens concerning the incoming Syrian refugee children – A pilot study

13:30-14:30

Lunch

PhD Students' presentations Part B'

14:30-17:00

1. Constantinos Christodoulou, PhD Student, University of Cyprus

Non-heterosexual identities in the field of social representations: A qualitative analysis of the Greek-Cypriot lay public and the print media

2. Rebecca Mouyi, PhD Student, University of Cyprus
Understanding the subjective experience of mental health services users in Cyprus: exploring representations of identity and stigma through the process of diagnosis to recovery

3. Deborah Letivan, PhD Student, Université de Neuchâtel
Data Session: Dialogical processes in creating stability within migratory instabilities: the case of repeated geographical mobility

19.15

Tour in old Nicosia across the existing divide

(Meeting at Home For Cooperation, Opposite Ledra Pallas Hotel, UN Buffer Zone)

Saturday 22nd of October 2016

09:00-11:00 Panel Discussion on Migration: A socio-cultural approach

Dr. Irini Kadianaki, Psychology Department, University of Cyprus,
Dr. Maria Avraamidou, Univeristy of Cyprus, Cyprus University of Technology
Representing the migration issue: an analysis of the Greek-Cypriot Press from 2011 to 2015

Dr. Ignacio Brescó, Department of Communication and Psychology, Aalborg University
Refugees: so far, and yet so close. Studying the symbolic power of images in relation to the refugee crisis.

Dr. Tania Zittoun, Faculté des lettres et sciences humaines, Université de Neuchâtel
A sociocultural perspective on migration/mobility

11:00-11:30 Coffee Break

PhD Students' presentations Part C'

11:30-14:00 1. Maria Orphanidou, PhD Student, University of Cyprus
What do we mean by depression?: Exploring the social representations of depression on multiple levels of analysis

2. Marios Kyriakides, PhD Student, University of Cyprus
Formation of prejudice and national identity: The role of cognitive development and intra-group/intergroup relations in children and adolescents

3. Vasiliki Tsolia, PhD Student, University of Cyprus
Inter-Ethnic Bullying: Intergroup level of analysis

14:00-15:00 Lunch

PhD Students' presentations Part D'

15:00-16:00 1. Friny Mylona, PhD Student, University of Cyprus
Otherness and the developing self: Social representations of the housekeeper in Cypriot children"

16:00-17:00 Group discussion: Way forward

Λόγω περιορισμένου αριθμού θέσεων, παρακαλούμε όπως δηλώσετε τη συμμετοχή σας στη συνάντηση.

Για δηλώσεις συμμετοχής ή άλλες πληροφορίες: Άντρια Νικολάου, 22 89 52 57, nicolaou.andrea@ucy.ac.cy