

Location: University of Neuchâtel, UniMail, B103 (NEW)

7 September 2011 - Aboveground and below-ground community ecology
9:00	Welcome – Edward Mitchell
9:10	Richard Bardgett "Linkages between aboveground and belowground communities, ecosystem functioning and global change"
9:50	Discussion
10:00	Michal Hájek "Vegetation, mire ecology, community ecology of macro- and microscopic organisms"
10:40	Discussion
10:50	Poster presentation (3' per poster)
11:00	Coffee break + poster session
11:30	Edward Mitchell "Above-ground vs below-ground patterns of communities: lessons from primary succession and disturbance gradients"
12:00	Discussion
12:15	Lunch ( Cafétéria UniMail ) excluding drinks
13:30	Frederick Spiegel "Protostelids and other mycetozoans in soils"
14:00	Discussion
14:15	Enrique Lara "Towards an integrative study of soil food webs"
14:45	Discussion
14:55	Conclusion (Edward Mitchell) - Distribution of attestations of attendance
15:15	Coffee break - Informal discussion
15:45	End