

Mots clés : Sciences humaines et sociales – migration-mobilité-diaspora

- Asylon(s)

<http://www.reseau-terra.eu/article925.html>

La revue Asylon(s), publiée par le réseau scientifique TERRA (Travaux, Etudes, Recherches sur les Réfugiés et l'Asile : <http://www.reseau-terra.eu>), contribue à la production des connaissances en sciences sociales sur les deux dimensions de ce domaine aujourd'hui saturé dans l'espace public par les idéologies et les croyances.

- Citizenship Studies

<http://www.tandf.co.uk/journals/ccst>

Citizenship Studies publishes internationally recognised scholarly work on contemporary issues in citizenship, human rights and democratic processes from an interdisciplinary perspective covering the fields of politics, sociology, history and cultural studies. It seeks to lead an international debate on the academic analysis of citizenship, and also aims to cross the division between internal and academic and external public debate.

- Diaspora: A Journal of Transnational Studies

<http://www.utpjournals.com/diaspora/> Diaspora is dedicated to the multidisciplinary study of the history, culture, social structure, politics, and economics of both the traditional diasporas – Armenian, Greek, and Jewish – and the new transnational dispersions which in the past four decades have come to be identified as 'diasporas.' These encompass groups ranging from the African-, Chinese-, Indian-, and Mexican-American to the Ukrainian- and Haitian-Canadian, the Caribbean-British, the Antillean-French, and many others.

- Diasporas: histoire et société

<http://w3.framespa.univ-tlse2.fr/revue/diasporas.php>

Fondée en 2002, se propose de renouveler dans une approche pluridisciplinaire l'histoire et la sociologie des diasporas, des migrations, des minorités ethniques ou religieuses.

- Diversities

<http://www.unesco.org/new/en/social-and-human-sciences/resources/periodicals/diversities/>

Diversities (formerly the International Journal on Multicultural Societies) is a scholarly and professional journal, published by UNESCO, to provide a platform for international, interdisciplinary and policy-related social science research in the fields of migration, multicultural policies, and human rights.

- Espace, Populations, Sociétés

<http://eps.revues.org/>

Revue pluridisciplinaire, internationale et thématique. Elle est ouverte et destinée aux scientifiques dont les thèmes de recherche recouvrent les trois mots-clés qui composent le titre.

La différenciation démographique et la différenciation sociale des configurations, de la pratique ou du vécu de l'espace, la différenciation spatiale des populations, des sociétés ou des groupes sociaux, l'imbrication des phénomènes sociaux, démographiques et spatiaux et leurs interactions constituent des objets d'études pour des géographes, des démographes, des sociologues, des ethnologues, des historiens, des politologues, des économistes...

- Ethnic and Racial Studies

<http://www.tandf.co.uk/journals/routledge/01419870.html>

Ethnic and Racial Studies, published ten times a year, is the leading journal for the analysis of these issues throughout the world. The journal provides an interdisciplinary academic forum for the presentation of research and theoretical analysis, drawing on sociology, social policy, anthropology, political science, economics, geography, international relations, history, social psychology and cultural studies.

- Ethnicities

<http://etn.sagepub.com/>

Ethnicities (ETN) is a quarterly fully peer reviewed journal with an impressive international reputation and focus. As a genuinely cross-disciplinary journal centred on sociology and politics, Ethnicities provides the very best critical, interdisciplinary dialogue on questions of ethnicity, nationalism and related issues such as identity politics and minority rights

- Global Networks. A journal of transnational affairs. http://www.blackwellpublishing.com/glob_enhanced/

Global Networks publishes high quality, peer-reviewed research on global networks, transnational affairs and practices, and their relation to wider theories of globalization. The journal provides a forum for discussion, debate and the refinement of key ideas in this emerging field. Contributions are drawn mainly from anthropology, geography, international political economy, business studies and sociology, but they also include history, political science, international relations, cultural studies and urban and regional studies

- Hommes et Migrations

<http://www.hommes-et-migrations.fr/index.php?id=5276>

Pluraliste et pluridisciplinaire, la revue confronte la réflexion des chercheurs à l'expérience des praticiens. Elle publie des dossiers thématiques sur les flux migratoires, les réalités de l'immigration, les politiques publiques, et le dialogue interculturel.

- International Migration

<http://www.wiley.com/bw/journal.asp?ref=0020-7985>

International Migration is a refereed, policy oriented journal on migration issues as analysed by demographers, economists, sociologists, political scientists and other social scientists from all parts of the world. It covers the entire field of policy relevance in international migration, giving attention not only to a breadth of topics reflective of policy concerns, but also attention to coverage of all regions of the world and to comparative policy.

- International Migration Review

<http://www.wiley.com/bw/journal.asp?ref=0197-9183>

International Migration Review is an interdisciplinary peer-reviewed journal created to encourage and facilitate the study of all aspects of sociodemographic, historical, economic, political, legislative and international migration. It is internationally regarded as the principal journal in the field facilitating study of international migration, ethnic group relations, and refugee movements. Through an interdisciplinary approach and from an international perspective, IMR provides the single most comprehensive forum devoted exclusively to the analysis and review of international population movements.

- International Journal of Intercultural Relations http://www.elsevier.com/wps/find/journaldescription.cws_home/535/description#description

IJIR is dedicated to advancing knowledge and understanding of theory, practice, and research in intergroup relations. The contents encompass theoretical developments, field-based evaluations of training techniques, empirical discussions of cultural similarities and differences, and critical descriptions of new training approaches.

- International Journal of Refugee Law <http://www.ingentaconnect.com/content/oup/reflaw>

The journal aims to stimulate research and thinking on refugee law and its development, taking account of the broadest range of State and international organization practice. In addition, it serves as an essential tool for all engaged in the protection of refugees and finding solutions to their problems. It regularly provides key information and commentary on today's critical issues, including the causes of refugee and related movements, internal displacement, the particular situation of women and refugee children, the human rights dimension, restrictive policies, asylum and determination procedures, populations at risk and the conditions in different countries.

- IMIS-Beiträge

<http://www.imis.uni-osnabrueck.de/PUBLIKAT/imiszeitschrift.html>

The IMIS-Beiträge present project reports and information from the institute as well as lectures given at IMIS and other smaller papers.

- Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies <http://www.tandf.co.uk/journals/carfax/1369183X.html>

The Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies (JEMS) publishes the results of first-class research on all forms of migration and its consequences, together with articles on ethnic conflict, discrimination, racism, nationalism, citizenship and policies of integration. Contributions to the journal, which are all fully refereed, are especially welcome when they are the result of comparative research, for example within Europe or between one or more European country and the countries of North America and the Asia-Pacific. The journal tends to focus on advanced industrial countries and has distinguished associate editors from North America and the Asia-Pacific.

- Journal of International Migration and Integration <http://www.springer.com/social+sciences/population+studies/journal/12134>

The Journal of International Migration and Integration (JIMI) is a multidisciplinary peer-reviewed scholarly journal that publishes original research papers, policy discussions and book reviews that enhance the understanding of immigration, settlement and integration and that contribute to policy development. The Journal consistently covers an array of subject areas including labor market integration; refugee status in various nations; adaptation strategies of immigrants in industrialized settings; racial and gender variations in migration; the role of social work in the integration of new citizens; and retention of ethnic and older national identities in new environments

- Journal of Intercultural Studies

<http://www.tandf.co.uk/journals/cJIS>

Journal of Intercultural Studies is an international, interdisciplinary journal that particularly encourages contributions from scholars in cultural studies, sociology, gender studies, political science, cultural geographers, urban studies, race and ethnic studies.

- Journal of Refugee Studies http://www.oxfordjournals.org/our_journals/refuge/about.html

Journal of Refugee Studies provides a forum for exploration of the complex problems of forced migration and national, regional and international responses. The Journal covers all categories of forcibly displaced people. Contributions that develop theoretical understandings of forced migration, or advance knowledge of concepts, policies and practice are welcomed from both academics and practitioners. Journal of Refugee Studies is a multidisciplinary peer-reviewed journal, and is published in association with the Refugee Studies Centre, University of Oxford.

- Migration Information Source

<http://www.migrationinformation.org/>

The Migration Information Source provides fresh thought, authoritative data from numerous global organizations and governments, and global analysis of international migration and refugee trends. A unique online resource, the Source offers useful tools, vital data, and essential facts on the movement of people worldwide.

Working with a team of international correspondents, we chronicle global migration movements, provide perspectives on current migration debates, and offer the tools and data from numerous global organizations and governments needed to understand migration.

- Migration Letters

<http://www.migrationletters.com/>

Migration Letters is an international leading scholarly journal for researchers, students, scholars who investigate human migration as well as practitioners and policy makers dealing with human movements and migrants. The journal encourages quick dissemination of research in the field through its letter type format enabling concise sharing of short accounts of research, debates, case studies, book reviews and viewpoints in this multidisciplinary field of social sciences. Migration Letters is the first ever letter-type in migration studies following a strict double blind peer review policy for research articles. It is published three times a year in January, May and September.

- Migration : A European Journal of International Migration and Ethnic

Relations

http://www.warwick.ac.uk/CRER/subject_guide/migration/journals/migration.html

The articles published in Migration are largely the outcome of research conducted by staff at the Berlin Institute for Comparative Social Research. Most articles are in English.

- Mobilities

<http://www.tandf.co.uk/journals/RMOB>

Mobilities examines both the large-scale movements of people, objects, capital, and information across the world, as well as more local processes of daily transportation, movement through public and private spaces, and the travel of material things in everyday life. Recent developments in transportation and communications infrastructures, along with new social and cultural practices of mobility, present new challenges for the coordination and governance of mobilities and for the protection of mobility rights and access. This has elicited many new research methods and theories relevant for understanding the connections between diverse mobilities and immobilities.

- Refugee Survey Quarterly

<http://rsq.oxfordjournals.org/>

The Refugee Survey Quarterly is a peer-reviewed journal focusing on the challenges of forced migration from multidisciplinary and policy-oriented perspectives. Refugee Survey Quarterly provides a vehicle for wide-ranging analyses and exploration of forced migration related issues. The RSQ also acts as an authoritative forum for the dissemination of ideas and expertise between the academic community, policy- and decision-makers, and practitioners.

- REMI- Revue européenne des migrations internationales

<http://remi.revues.org/>

La Revue européenne des migrations internationales (REMI), lancée en 1985 à l'initiative de Gildas Simon, a pour vocation de publier les travaux de recherche, empiriques et théoriques, des différentes disciplines concernées par les migrations internationales et des relations interethniques. Tout en privilégiant la dimension européenne comme cadre spatial de référence, la revue est ouverte à d'autres champs, à travers d'autres systèmes migratoires dans le monde.

La REMI, ouverte à l'ensemble des sciences sociales, se veut un observatoire permanent de la diversité des espaces étudiés et de l'évolution des approches, de la complexité mouvante des migrations internationales et des dynamiques sociales.

- Social Identities

<http://www.tandfonline.com/loi/csid20>

Social Identities aims to furnish an interdisciplinary and international focal point for theorizing issues at the interface of social identities. The journal is especially concerned to address these issues in the context of the transforming political economies and cultures of postmodern and postcolonial conditions. Social Identities is intended as a forum for contesting ideas and debates concerning the formations of, and transformations in, socially significant identities, their attendant forms of material exclusion and power, as well as the political and cultural possibilities opened up by these identifications.

- Social Politics. International Studies in Gender, State & Society <http://sp.oxfordjournals.org/>

Social Politics is the journal for incisive analyses of gender, politics and policy across the globe. It takes on the critical emerging issues of our age: globalization, transnationality and citizenship, migration, diversity and its intersections, the restructuring of capitalisms and states. We engage with feminist theoretical issues and with theories of welfare regimes, "varieties of capitalism," the ideational and cultural turns in social science, governmentality and postcolonialism.

Site du centre de documentation du SFM, revues internationales :

http://www.migration-population.ch/sfm/page-10731_fr_CH.html